Disclosure Questions
Town Hall
July 28, 2022
Welcome & Opening Remarks
Jim Payne
Why are we revising the questions?

- Have not been holistically reviewed since the inception of NMLS
- When asked approximately 80% of agencies said the questions should be reviewed and updated holistically
- To clarify the questions and the definitions of terms used in the Questions to aid industry
Key Revisions
Cindy Fazio
What are the key revisions?

- Categories of questions are in the same order for the Company and Individual Questions and where appropriate, the language has been made consistent.

- Added a consumer protection authority and governmental entity to the list of regulatory bodies that may take action against a company or an individual.

- Added additional definitions (e.g., court, lien, material litigation) and amended some existing definitions.

- Where needed, questions have been clarified.

- Limited the misdemeanor inquiry to ten years.

- Both the Company and Individual questions ask questions pertaining to authorization to act as a contractor, accountant or attorney. These questions have been isolated in their own section. Have also added financial services professional licenses to this inquiry.

- Individual Question Flow was revised, so personal questions are followed by those that pertain to control activities.
