GENERAL INFORMATION

Who Is Required To Have This License?

The Arkansas Uniform Money Services Act, generally requires a person or business to have a license to engage in money services activity in Arkansas. A person that engages in money transmission must have a money transmission license. Money transmission includes:

- Receiving money or its equivalent value to transmission;
- Sell, issue, or act as an intermediary for stored value devices;
- Issuing or selling prepaid access cards;
- A bill payer service; and
- Informal money transfer system engaged in as a business for transferring money outside the conventional financial institutions system.

Filing an Application for Money Transmitter License for a new application does not authorize you to engage in business activities that require a license under the Arkansas Uniform Money Services Act. If you are operating, advertising, soliciting, or hold yourself out as providing money transmission in Arkansas or to Arkansas consumers without the required license, you are violating Ark. Code Ann. § 23-55-202(a)

- Follow the guidance in Document Upload Descriptions and Examples.
- Only upload documents relevant to the company application.
- Only upload documents where there is a selectable document category. If inappropriate documents are uploaded that should not be, you will be contacted by your regulator and asked to remove them from NMLS.
- Do not upload the same company documents multiple times. Generally, unless the document is state-specific, if the document has already been uploaded for another state, a new upload is not required unless changes have been made.

- For state-specific documents (e.g., Surety Bonds), be sure to indicate the applicable state.
