GENERAL INFORMATION

Who Is Required to Have This License?

The following persons are required to obtain a license to engage in the business of debt collection in California pursuant to the Debt Collection Licensing Act (California Financial Code section 100000, et seq.):

- Any person who, in the ordinary course of business, regularly, on the person's own behalf or on behalf of others, engages in debt collection.
- Any person who composes and sells, or offers to compose and sell, forms, letters and other collection media used or intended to be used for debt collection.
- Any person who engages in the business of a debt buyer. A debt buyer is any person or entity who regularly engages in the business of purchasing charged-off consumer debt for collection purposes, whether it collects the debt itself, hires a third party for collection, or hires an attorney-at-law for collection litigation (California Civil Code section 1788.50.)

NOTE: For affiliates seeking to be licensed under a single license, each affiliate must complete and file a Company Form (MU1) through NMLS. The application fee is a single $350 fee for the Form MU1 filings. CA-DFPI will invoice the applicant for the $350 application fee after the application is filed through NMLS. CA-DFPI will issue a single license listing the names of the affiliates. An affiliate may be licensed under only one CA-DFPI debt collection license.

Activities Authorized Under This License

This license authorizes the following activities:

- First party debt collection
- Third party debt collection
- First mortgage servicing (only for collections for first mortgages the company holds/owns)
- Third party first mortgage servicing (only for collections for first mortgages the company does not hold/own)

- Third party subordinate lien mortgage servicing (only for collections for subordinate lien mortgage the company does not hold/own)
- Judgment recovery
- Other debt

Pre-Requisites for License Applications

Surety Bond. Debt collectors must submit with the license application and maintain a surety bond in a minimum amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), payable to the Commissioner of the California Department of Financial Protection and Innovation (CA-DFPI) and issued by an insurer authorized to do business in California.

Criminal Background Check and Credit Check. A criminal background check and a credit check are required for applicants (if an individual); principal officers (president, chief executive officer, treasurer, chief financial officer and any other officer with direct responsibility for the conduct of the applicant's debt collection activities in this state); directors; managing members; general partners; trustees; individuals owning or controlling, directly or indirectly, ten percent (10%) or more of the applicant; individuals responsible for the conduct of the applicant's debt collection activities in this state; and any other individual listed on the Direct Owners and Executive Officers section of the Company Form MU1. Instructions for completing the finger printing process will be emailed after the application is submitted into NMLS.

CA-DFPI is required under California Civil Code section 1798.17 to provide the following notice with any form used to collect personal information from individuals. A social security number and other information specified in the application for a license as a debt collector is being requested pursuant to Sections 100004 and 100009 of the California Financial Code, Section 17520 of the California Family Code, and Section 494.5 of the California Business and Professions Code. The submission of all items of information is mandatory. Failure to provide all or any part of the information requested may preclude CA-DFPI from approving the license application.

The information will be used to: 1) conduct a background investigation of the individual by the California Department of Justice's Identification and Information Branch or by other federal, state or local law enforcement agencies, as authorized by law; 2) determine whether a license, as allowed under the law, should be accepted, granted, approved, denied, revoked or limited in any way, or business entities or individuals licensed or otherwise regulated by CA-DFPI are conducting themselves in accordance with applicable laws, or laws administered by CA-DFPI are being or have been violated and administrative action, civil action, or referral to appropriate federal, state or local law enforcement or regulatory agencies, as authorized by law, is appropriate; 3) match the social security number to the names on the lists of tax delinquencies provided by the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration and the California Franchise Tax Board under Business and Professions Code Section 494.5, and to the list provided by the California Department of Child Support Services under Family Code Section 17520; and 4) respond to requests from child support agencies concerning the social security number. The California Department of Tax and Fee Administration and the California Franchise Tax Board are authorized to share taxpayer information with CA-DFPI. In the event the state tax obligation is not paid by a licensee, CA-DFPI may be required to suspend the license.

Any known or foreseeable disclosures of the information may include transfers to other federal, state, or local law enforcement and regulatory agencies, including NMLS as a channeling agent to, from, or on behalf of those federal, state, and local law enforcement and regulatory agencies, as authorized by law.

Subject to certain exceptions or exemptions, an individual has a right of access to the individual's personal information that is maintained by CA-DFPI. The Deputy Commissioner for Administration, the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation, 2101 Arena Boulevard, Sacramento, California 95834, telephone number (916) 445-5541, is responsible for the system of records and shall, upon request, inform individuals regarding the location of the records and the categories of persons who use the information in the records maintained pursuant to the Debt Collection Licensing Act (Financial Code Section 100000 et seq.).

CA-DFPI does not issue paper licenses for this license type. CA-DFPI will email approval of the license to the individual named in the Company Form (MU1) as the Primary Company Contact.

Document Uploads Guidance

Documents that must be uploaded to the Document Uploads section of the Company Form (MU1) in NMLS are indicated in the checklist below. When uploading documents:

- Follow the guidance in Document Upload Descriptions and Examples.
- Only upload documents relevant to the company application.
- Only upload documents where there is a selectable document category. If inappropriate documents are uploaded that should not be, you will be contacted by your regulator and asked to remove them from NMLS.
- Do not upload the same company documents multiple times. Generally, unless the document is state-specific, if the document has already been uploaded for another state, a new upload is not required unless changes have been made.
- If a document previously uploaded has been revised, delete the old document and replace it with the new document (history of the old document will remain in NMLS).
- For state-specific documents (e.g., Surety Bonds), be sure to indicate the applicable state.
