Who is required to be licensed?

Any loan broker operating a branch office in Indiana must license the branch office. A branch office means a loan broker office other than the loan broker's principal place of business. See Ind. Code § 23-2.5-1-6. A loan broker office is a fixed physical location:

1. At which a person holds itself out as engaging in the activities of a loan broker;
2. The address of which appears on business cards, on stationery, or in advertising in connection with the activities of a loan broker;
3. At which the person's name, advertising, promotional materials, or signage suggests that residential mortgage loans are originated, negotiated, funded, or serviced; or
4. Where the person otherwise engages in conduct that suggests to the public that the activities of a loan broker may occur at the location.

See Ind. Code § 23-2.5-1-6.

Who does not need this license?

Loan broker branch locations that:
- Are not located in Indiana;
- Do not conduct business in Indiana; or
- Do not conduct business with Indiana residents or with Indiana mortgages.

Pre-requisites for license applications?

- Must have a licensed Principal Manager for each branch location. A Principal Manager may supervise up to five (5) loan broker offices, which includes all branch offices and principal places of business.
- Must designate a branch manager that is unique to the branch office who is responsible for supervising the activities of the branch office.
