Who is required to have this license?

Any entity that meets the definition of a mortgage broker in Montana must license every location other than the licensee's principal place of business at which a residential mortgage loan is originated. A mortgage broker must designate a manager at the main office and a separate designated manager at each branch. Mont. Code Ann. § 32-9-122(2).

A designated manager is defined as a mortgage loan originator with at least 3 years of experience as a mortgage loan originator or registered mortgage loan originator who is designated by an entity as the individual responsible for the operation of a particular location that is under the designated manager's full management, supervision, and control. Mont. Code Ann. § 32-9-103(15).

A branch is a location at which a licensee conducts business other than a licensee's principal place of business. The location is considered a branch office if:

(a) the address of the location appears on business cards, stationery, or advertising used by the entity;
(b) the entity's name or advertising suggests that mortgages are made at the location;
(c) the location is held out to the public as a licensee's place of business due to the actions of an employee or independent contractor of the entity; or
(d) the location is controlled directly or indirectly by the entity. Mont. Code Ann. § 32-9-103(9).
