Who May Obtain This License?
A transitional mortgage loan originator license is a license that may be issued to an out-of-State mortgage loan originator, and that provides temporary authority to engage in the business of mortgage loan origination in this State pending the completion by the transitionally licensed individual of the requirements for full licensure as a mortgage loan originator license shall be valid for a term of no longer than 120 days from a complete application, during which time a transitional mortgage loan originator licensee duly sponsored by a business licensee may engage in business as a mortgage loan originator.

Application for a Transitional Mortgage Loan Originator license must include a completed application for full licensure, authorization for a credit report through NMLS, and authorization of a criminal background check (“CBC”) in the form of an FBI CBC. The individual may use the 120-day period to fulfill the New Jersey specific pre-licensing education and written test requirements prescribed in N.J.A.C. 3:15-2.10 and N.J.A.C. 3:15-2.11 of

Criminal Background Check

Authorization for an FBI criminal history background check to be completed in NMLS.

After you authorize the FBI criminal history background check through the Individual Form (MU4), you must schedule an appointment to be fingerprinted. See the Completing the Criminal Background Check Process Quick Guide for information.

Authorization for a credit report must be completed. Upon initial authorization, you are required to complete an Identity Verification Process (IDV) within the Individual Form (MU4). See the Individual (MU4) Credit Report Quick Guide for instructions on completing the IDV.

Note: The same credit report can be used for any existing or additional licenses for up to 30 days.
