The above-referenced company and all associated branch offices will only engage directly or indirectly in the business of collecting any account, bill or other indebtedness from a consumer debtor for such person's own account if the indebtedness was acquired from another person and if the indebtedness was either delinquent or in default at the time it was acquired.

It is further understood a surety bond in the penal amount of $25,000 per office location will be required prior to the above-referenced company engaging in the business of third-party collecting or receiving for payment for others of any account, bill or other indebtedness from a consumer debtor or engaging in the business of collecting or receiving for payment property tax from a property tax debtor on behalf of a municipality, including any person who, by any device, subterfuge or pretense, makes a pretended purchase or takes a pretended assignment of accounts from any other person or municipality of such indebtedness for the purpose of evading the provisions of Sections 36a-800 to 36a-814, inclusive, of the Connecticut General Statutes.

Further understood is that engaging in third-party collections without the requisite bond will constitute a violation of Section 36a-802 of the Connecticut General Statutes.
